

RESIGNATION OF HON. WM. WILKINS.

LETTER

FROM

THE HON. WILLIAM WILKINS,

Resigning his seat as a member of the House of Representatives for the 28th Congress.

FEBRUARY 19, 1844.

Read, and laid upon the table.

WASHINGTON, February 19, 1844.

SIR: It becomes my duty to inform you that I have resigned the seat I held in the House as a Representative from the twenty-first congressional district of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania.

Thus terminates my very brief connexion with you, sir, and the gentlemen over whose legislative deliberations you have been so happily selected to preside. But, brief as this connexion may have been, it has impressed and left upon my mind sentiments of very high respect and sincere regard for those with whom I can no longer associate as a member of the House of Representatives; and I pray you to be assured that it will always be my happiness to cherish and retain those sentiments under the various changes of life to which we are all liable.

I have the honor to be, sir, your obedient and humble servant,

WM. WILKINS.

To the HON. JOHN W. JONES,

Speaker of the House of Representatives.
